What: CrossTo, the award winning luxury design-centered brand has announced another first for Thailand with the new and improved CrossTo Samui All Inclusive Spa Resort concept, which is opening on Feb. 1. A reflection of current consumer trends, the concept provides guests with what they want and deserve — excellent treatments that respect the elegant, warm and traditional Thai spa culture and service philosophies. CrossTo Samui All-Inclusive Spa Resort delivers on all fronts, offering an adult-only, all villa, all-spa concept. Throughout their stay, guests will enjoy unlimited spa treatments with a guaranteed minimum of 120 minutes per day. There is no limit to the amount of treatments you can experience. Guests will be spoiled for choice, from massage oils to facial creams, resulting in skin and muscles that are rejuvenated and healthy. Rooms are offered in packages only — accommodation and all-spa inclusive, guaranteeing the most relaxing and stress-free holiday on the island. CrossTo Samui will be running an introductory special for February and March to introduce this new concept with prices starting at THB 8,920.00++ for two.
